G20 COUNTDOWN BEGINS

Small N-reactors, jet deal, visa on Modi-Biden table

SHUBHAJIT ROY New Delhi, September 4

AS US PRESIDENT Joe Biden comes to India for the G20 summit, New Delhi and Washington are working on an ambitious slew of deliverables for their bilateral engagement that includes a possible nuclear pact on small modular nuclear reactors, an academic programme tailored for Indian students, movement on the drone deal, progress on US Congress approval for a defence deal on jet engines, a joint humanitarian aid for Ukraine, a more liberal visa regime for Indians and new consulates in each other's countries. Sources told The Indian Express that Indian and the US officials are in hectic negotiations for the last few weeks about framing a "robust" and "outcome-oriented" communique for President Biden's first visit to India as US President. The last US President to visit India was Donald Trump in February 2020.

Biden, who has visited India multiple times in different capacities, was keen to have a visit that takes the India-US story forward building on in June for the state visit.

Normally, bilateral visits are not included during the G20 summits — but India has made an exception for the US President and the Saudi Crown Prince.

India and the US are hoping to iron out the differences over the nuclear deal which cropped up after the civil nuclear liability law and the two sides hope to seal an agreement or an understanding to set up small nuclear reactors – seen as easier than going for more capital intensive large reactors.

In June, both sides had discussed negotiations between the Nuclear Power Corporation

After the US Congress last week approved the deal that will enable a higher level of transfer of US jet engine technology plans to procure General Atomics MQ-9B HALE UAVs highly powerful drones — the two sides are discussing a plan that General Atomics will also establish a Comprehensive Global MRO facility. A concrete announcement is expected during the visit as well.

The two sides are also working towards announcing academic programmes tailored for Indian students, where STEM courses will be offered for a year-long Master's degree with a specialisation in a particular industry. After the programme, the students will have the option of staying in the US for up to three years and work there.

India has so far sent in about 100 tons of humanitarian aid, which included essential medicines, medical equipment, blankets, tents, food, and the latest tranche was delivered by the Indian ambassador in Kyiv to Zaporizhzhia (where the nuclear plant is located) last month.

G-20 Leaders' Summits – contexts & agendas

MUKESH JAGOTA takes a look at the origin and evolution of G20 as New Delhi is set to host the 18th Leaders' Summit.

The Group of Twenty (G20) was formed in 1999 in response to the Asian financial crisis of 1997-1998. The crisis highlighted the need for a more inclusive forum for international economic cooperation, as the G7, the main forum for such cooperation at the time, did not include many of the emerging economies that were most affected by the crisis. The G20 was initially set up as a forum for finance ministers and central bank governors of 19 major economies (19 countries plus the EU). In the wake of the 2008 global financial crisis, the G20 was elevated to the level of heads of state/government. The first G20 Summit of heads of state/govt was held in Washington DC in Nov 2008.

The G-20 has played a crucial role in coordinating a global response to the 2008-2009 financial crisis. Member countries implemented fiscal stimulus packages and coordinated monetary policies to stabilise the global economy. As the crisis had started from the financial sector, G-20 has implemented reforms through the Basel III framework. The reforms were towards strengthening banks' capital and liquidity requirements. The G-20 has repeatedly pledged to resist protectionism and promote free and open trade.

Here are the key events in the G20 history:

1997-1998: Asian financial crisis

1999: First meeting of the G20 Finance Ministers and Central Bank Governors in Berlin

from COVID-19 pandemic

2022: G-20 Summit in Bali was held in the shadow of Russia-Ukraine conflict. The differences over the war, which came at a time when the global economic recovery post-COVID was still fragile, dominated the proceedings. The final communique talked of coordinated actions to advance an agenda for a strong, inclusive and resilient global recovery and sustainable development that delivers jobs and growth.

2023: G-20 Summit in Delhi on September 9-10 is the 18th such meeting of heads of government of the grouping. Theme of India's G-20 presidency is "Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam " or "One Earth -One Family". It also spotlights LiFE (Lifestyle for Environment) with its associated, environmentally sustainable and responsible choices. As the Russia-Ukraine conflict continues, it will cast a shadow on deliberations here too. Chinese president Xi Jinping has decided not to attend. Russian President Vladimir Putin will also be absent. During India's presidency of G-20 in the last one year, new initiatives like Startup 20, Space and cooperation on science and technology have been launched.

Absence of Xi deepens chill in India-China relations

SHUBHAJIT ROY New Delhi, September 4

CHINESE PRESIDENT XI Jinping is not going to attend the G20 summit in New Delhi on September 9 and 10 — in what is going to be the most conspicuous and telling absence from the summit.

The Chinese Foreign Ministry announced Monday that Chinese Premier Li Qiang will attend the summit. Xi, who has been China's President for a decade now, is going to miss the G20 summit for the second time. But the last time he skipped this important forum was in 2021, when COVID-19 pandemic was still peak, the Chinese government's hard "Zero COVID policy" had prevented him from going overseas.In fact, he had not travelled during the pandemic at all.

This time, therefore, his absence sends stronger political messages given that the G20 is considered the world's "premier economic forum." It came into being at the leaders' level during the international financial crisis in 2008 effectively creating a space for the world's top economies gather and brainstorm on the future.

That the topmost leader of the world's second-largest economy is absent at the "premier economic forum" is significant. The other noteworthy absence that continues for the second year in a row is the absence of Russian President Vladimir Putin, who is waging a war in Ukraine since February 2022. His absence in the Bali summit in November 2022 will be repeated in Delhi

Xi's absence also comes at a time when India, as the host of the G20 summit and the President of the G20 process for the current year, is in a strained relationship with China.

Xi not attending makes Biden 'disappointed'

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA Washington, September 4

US PRESIDENT JOE Biden has said that he is looking forward to his trip to India this week, but is 'disappointed' that his Chinese counterpart Xi Jinping will not attend the G20 Summit in New Delhi.

Biden will travel to India on September 7 to participate in the G20 Summit and will have a bilateral meeting with Prime Minister Narendra Modi on September 8 on the sidelines of the historic meeting, the White House announced on Friday.

In its capacity as the current president of G20, India is hosting the annual summit of the influential grouping in New Delhi on September 9 and asked Biden on Sunday whether he was looking forward to his visits to India and Vietnam. "Yes, I am," Biden replied. He expressed his disappointment over President Xi of China not attending the summit in New Delhi. "I am disappointed, but I am going to get to see him," Biden said in response to a question.
